Praktische Anwendungstips

It should be presented in a good audible way, students should be able to take notes, it is worth making a presentation.

It consists of three main parts:

1. Introduction: establishing a teacher-student communication, raising awareness, communicating knowledge
2. Explanation: presentation of a topic, it is necessary to maintain the attention of the students, it is necessary to strive for a clear explanation

3. Summary: summarizing what has been said, providing a question-and-answer opportunity, highlighting important information, linking it to the following parts of the curriculum
