Those who have a Microsoft account can use it to take notes and make audio recordings, which they can even share and edit together as a team – thus it is excellent for group work as well.

Users can have multiple notebooks in which they can create sections and tabs.

The image shows a screenshot of the Microsoft OneNote application interface. The main window displays a notebook titled "Company Picnic Plans" with handwritten notes and a checklist. The interface includes a ribbon with tabs for FILE, HOME, INSERT, DRAW, HISTORY, REVIEW, and VIEW. A search box is located in the top right corner. The notebook content includes a checklist under "Follow-up items" and handwritten notes about picnic plans, including a mind map for "Company Picnic" with branches for "Park?", "Campus?", "Band", "Entertainment", "Paddle Boats", "Games", "Soda", and "Pie".

Callouts and their descriptions:

- Switch between touch and mouse: If you're using OneNote on a Touch device, you can add this switch to the Quick Access Toolbar.
- Display or hide the ribbon: Click any ribbon tab to display its commands. To keep it open, click the small pin icon near the lower right.
- View or switch between online accounts: Click your account ID to change settings or switch accounts.
- Manage files: Open, create, share, and print your notes. You can also change your account settings here.
- Show notebooks: Click the notebook icon to see all of your open notebooks.
- Show note containers: Mouse over any text to show its container. Grab the top bar to move it around.
- Tag important information: Prioritize and organize notes with instantly searchable tags.
- Find your notes: Use the Search box to find anything in your notebooks, or press Ctrl+E.
- Create pages: Click Add Page to insert a new page.
- View a full page: Click the double arrow for Full Page View.
- Handwrite, draw, and sketch: Take notes in your own handwriting on a Touch-capable PC.

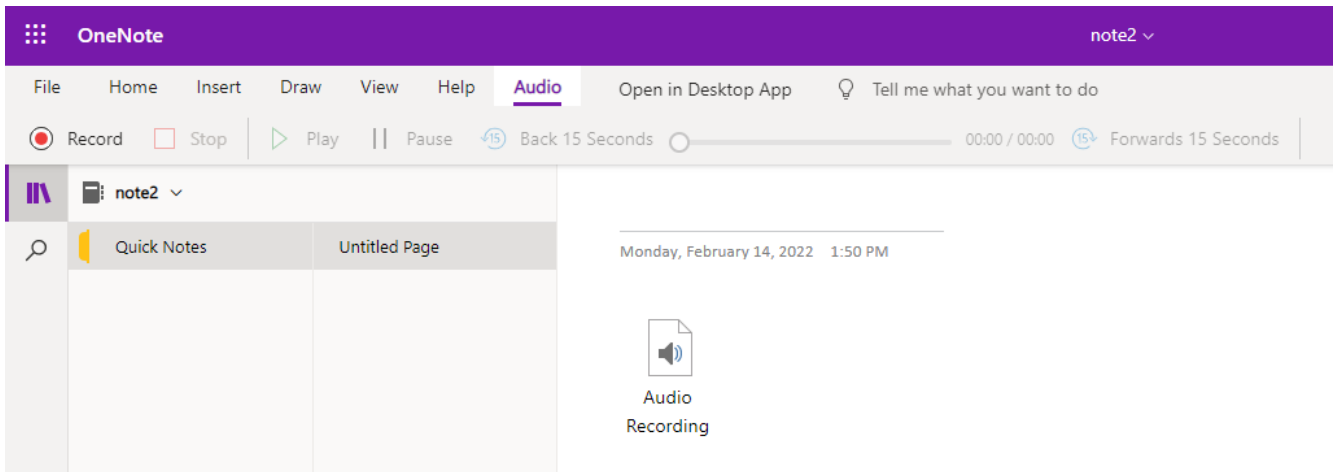

Excellent for group work.

The image shows a screenshot of the "Send link" dialog box in OneNote. The dialog box is titled "Send link" and contains the following information:

- The link is "note2".
- The sharing settings are "Anyone with the link can edit".
- The "To:" field is labeled "Name, group or email" and is currently empty.
- There is a "Message..." field for adding a message.
- A blue "Send" button is located at the bottom right.
- A "Copy link" button is located at the bottom left.

It saves your work automatically at regular intervals.

It can also record audio or send video messages.
