Beschreibung

This is a web-based platform where you can digitize your already existing PDF worksheets. The digitized worksheets facilitate self-assessment, moreover, the possibilities offered by the website make it easier for the teacher to improve.

The site also lists a public collection of digitized worksheets, where we can choose from a large number of worksheets in different languages. If one of them suits us, we can distribute it to students with only a few clicks.
Create your own interactive worksheet

Upload the PDF document to the site, draw text boxes in the area where you want to place the interactive element and write the statement for the task type in the box.
Task types: Official Liveworksheets example

1. Type the correct answer: type the answer in a plain box, the possible answers are separated by /.

2. Drop-down select box: after choose: type the possible answers, the correct answer is preceded by *, the possible answers are separated by / (exercise 2 in example).

3. Multiple choice exercises: for the area of the correct answer type select:yes statement in the box, for the incorrect answer select:no is placed (exercise 3 in example).
4. Check boxes: type tick:yes for a correct answer, tick:no for a wrong answer.
5. Join with arrows: draw text boxes over the elements to be joined, write join:1 join:2 ... in them; give the same number to the elements to be joined (exercise 4 in example).

6. Drag and drop: drawn boxes over each of the elements to be placed. In these boxes write drag: and a number (drag:1 drag:2 ...). Draw boxes above the parts to be filled in, in these boxes type drop: statement and the corresponding number (exercise 5 in example).

7. Insert a link: the link must be inserted in the text box after the link: command.

The drawn text boxes can be moved, resized, duplicated and removed after selection.

You can customize the style of the text in the boxes, which you can do in the Preview menu.

Vorteile

- instant worksheet completion and evaluation without registration
- the worksheet can be embedded and shared in several ways (Google Classroom, MS Teams, Whatsapp, Facebook, email)
- worksheets can be organized in workbooks
- we can create classes/groups and workbooks can be distributed to these classes/groups

Nachteile

- you have to register on the site, it is not possible to log in with a Google account
- only 10 private worksheets are allowed, if we want more, we have to make them public
- no Hungarian or Slovenian interface
- student results are kept for 30 days only

Verwendung beim Lehren/ Lernen

By making the worksheets interactive, assessment is instant, so students can get immediate feedback on their knowledge and with the right settings he can learn the correct answers.
