Descrizione

The Hungarian National Digital Archive (from 1 January 2017) is an online public collection of digitised cultural assets of Hungarian museums, libraries, archives, private collections, civil society organisations, cultural and educational institutions.

The aim of the database is to collect and organise digitised assets and to make them available to the public respecting copyright. It provides insight, revealing cultural content whose location would be more difficult to identify without a single database.
