Descrizione

The Hungarian National Digital Archive (from 1 January 2017) is an online public collection of digitised cultural assets of Hungarian museums, libraries, archives, private collections, civil society organisations, cultural and educational institutions.

The aim of the database is to collect and organise digitised assets and to make them available to the public respecting copyright. It provides insight, revealing cultural content whose location would be more difficult to identify without a single database.

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the MaNDA website. On the left, there is a logo consisting of a stylized eye with a play button symbol inside, followed by the text 'MaNDA' in white on a teal background. To the right of this, the text 'HUNGARIAN NATIONAL DIGITAL ARCHIVE' is displayed in pink. Below the logo and text is a search bar with a dropdown menu labeled 'search in: all fields' and a search input field containing the word 'search'. A magnifying glass icon is on the right side of the search bar. Below the search bar, a status message reads: 'There are 713 716 records and 12 581 164 metadata in our database'.
